Many Politicians Claiming to Have The Flower Market Open Until 8 Programme for the Ground-Breaking It Ends in a Police Court for One Mr. Croker's Promises.

Friction Between the Five Powerful Chieftains of Tammany Hall.

he returns from his long European visit next forty florists were jubliant, while not less than Ex-City Chamberlain Richard Croker, when arrength which he is said to have gained by of this early heatty show by visiting the marhis residence under the sunny skies of the ket during that last hour, between 7 and 8 The General's Dirinday anniversary is fittingly hand one of the hardest undertakings which It was ever his fortune to grapple with.

dered and fostered in the organization until

Mr. Croker has been properly supposed to exercise a supreme control in Tammany Hall. and his will has always been accounted law, whether the question at issue were one of party expediency or the disposition of municipai patronage.

This was the case, but it is said to be so no longer and that there is a would-be usurper of the seat of power held by Mr. Croker in the person of Police Commissioner James J.

With Commissioner Martin in the rebellion against Mr. Croker's rule are said to be Mayor Grant, Public Works Commissioner Glircy. Fire Commusioner Purroy and Corporatio

The opposition to Mr. Croker has manifested self recently in numerous ways and especially in the slate which it is said has been made make in the municipal service May 1.

was but an incident of it. Mr. Croker acknowledges by cable that he promised the support o the organization to secure a Judgeship for Alfred Steckler, but Commissioner Martin and Commissioner Gilroy, who were left to manage affairs in his absence, paid no attention to the promise; hence the secession of the leaders in the Tenth Assembly District.

Other promises of Mr. Croker, which it is wald these gentleman propose to set at naught, relate to the disposition of patronage on May 1. Mr. Croker is said to have promised to have Republican Solon B. Smith reappointed Police Justice: to give John J. Souppell, a Fire Commissionership and to dispose of the Jury Com missionership to another person. These are said to have been absolute promises, and only one of them is to be kept, it is declared, and that is the one to appoint Boannell to succeed Anthony Eickhoff as Fire Comit is alleged that a new deal has been made whereby the support of Henry D. Purroy, Edward Kearney and Scannell was turn for Scannell's appointment. This is said were also at the time. Before this arrangement the candidate for Fire Commi sioner was said to be Percy Rockwell, who was set up by the anti-Crokerites to Fourteenth District.

which the Martinites do not desire to have on B. Smith reappointed, Under Sheriff John

The appointment to succeed Police Justice Helry Murray, which it was condently besideved could be given to ex-Judge Leicester Hoime, is said to have been positively mortaged to Chief Deputy Assistant District-Attorney Henry A. Macdons, who was one of the party who visited New Orleans with "Rex" Grant during the Mardi Gras. This little plum is guaranteed to furnish fruit for ten years at the rate of $8,000 worth each recurring twelfth month.

month.

The Bock Commissionership to be vacated by James Matthews comes next. It is worth $5,000 annually, and Enward P. Hagan, the bling at her purse.

"How much?" one of them asked, fumbling at her purse.

"Sold, mum," laconically replied the florist. mentioned for the position of Tax Commis-sioner, for it is generally believed by politicians that there is little liability of the reappointment of Michael Coleman to his $5,000 position.

Correction, a $3,000 office.

There is said to be good reason for this appointment and that it that Dr. Simmons is a Sachem of the Tammany Society.

This may acen queer but the Sachems of the Tammany Society are the Trustees of the Capture of the display.

"Judge" P. S. F. Daley is another of the enhylated Cross and the outlet of the Market of the Society Society and the Society Society

ority of the machems through the annual election lest Monday Right, and to be in a position to dictaire to Richard Croker.

There are thirteen sachems, one for each of the original States, and Police Commissioner Martin is believed to control seven of them.
These are Mayor Grant, B. F. Martin, is. D.
Purroy, W. Bourke Cockran, Charies E. Sunmons, Wm. H. Clark and John H. Y. Arnold, and perhaps Charles Welde.

Mesars, Clark and Atuoid were elected in place of Gen. John Cockrane and Joel O.
Sievenn at the last election, the latter two being supposed to represent Mr. Croker.

The other Croker men on the Board are John McQuade, Mr. Croker nimeelf, Charles M.
Clancy, Thomas L. Feitner and John J. Gorman.

man,
Air. Croker's friends in the organization are looking anxious and waiting impatiently for the return of the boss, who, they say, will soon bring the highflyers down from their loty flight and get the old machine to working in the good, ole-fashioned style again.
Ther seknowledge, though, that it is a big contract to take, but they have every belief in the ability of Mr. Croker to carry it out.

APPRAISER COOPER REBUKED.

Pay Since His Removal.

Edward C. Leseur, the expert glove examlner in the Appraisers' stores, and who was removed by Appraiser Cooper after the dispute by order of Secretary Foater.

Mr. Leseur goes back to work after a four months' vacation for which he receives pay at the rate of $2,500 a year.

The Secretary's order is a surprise to Appraiser Cooper and Assistant Appraiser Dennis F. Burke, and is unifed with a staffection by everybody but trease few officials. It is a vin-dication of Examiner Losenr and a returke to Mr. Cooper, Gen. Burke, and te Gen. George it. S after, the only one of the Boar of Gen-tral Appraisers who sided with the Appraiser.

O'Clock This Morning.

A Thousand People Enjoy the Scene During the Last Hour.

The Union Square Flower Mart was kept open o'clock.

was ever his fortune to grapple with.

A multineus spirit is said to have been genbrilliant group- of flowering plants that in every greatest citizens will be an object lesson in third streets, last night. street in the neighborhood one might meet men, women and delighted children, proudly bearing away prizes secured at the new market, some of them carrying their arms full of the potted beauties.

enliven the scene, and he was enthusiastic others. over the new institution.

been behind the age. This is a great stride in day to the Marshal, Comrade George Chappell, her civilization. There were flower marts like. The posts of the order in this city and from this before the beginning of the ages, even in other points will assemble in Riverside Park, "Darkest Africa." New York is behindhand, according to orders of the day issued already, out she will make up for lost time."

* For years it has been possible for the marthe buyers of the later bloomers would not go ranks facing inward. down to that dirty place at Canal and West Regular troops from Governor's Island and rigan had vowed several times that this was alrests. Now let us make the mart a permathe forts in the harbor, including a battery of the last "Varsity theatre party" that would nent thing.

giorious variety of hue from purest white to the from the steamer Chester A. Arthur, under despest red, coxcombs, geraniums, fuschiss, command of an officer detailed by Major, -tien. ginnias, 'youth and old age ' and a nost of bed- | O. O. Howard.

them can be sold right here in Union Square | conjunction with the battery on above.

Train, and exclaimed:

"My dearest friend! I first met my wife at a lecture given by Mr. Train at Leicester, Engand-the best toing that ever happened to me. "But to return to the mart. It is stimulating the love for flowers, and in a few weeks

Charles Dietz, the North Bergen norist, said: "Business is bound to be double what we could ever hope for at the old mart. Each new morning brings a larger crowd of buyers. Besides, our quarters were so cramped down there that if a market florist got a place to fully long day of it.

"We worked an eighteen-hour day, and got a mighty scant living at that. Now we can contest with John Reilly for leadership in the out fear of being crowded. Down there the ladies did not dare to venture in such early iours of morning. Street cars did not run till past daylight."

New postes are added to the variety of the B. Sexion, personal friend of the Mayor and exhibition as the season advances. Next week brother-in-law of Corporation Counsel Clark, there will be the calciolaria or "lady's pock-is said to be slated.

The other place, which it is claimed Mr. Croker promised to another, the Commissionership of Jurors, will go to Deputy Commissionership of Jurors, will go to Deputy Commissioner of Public Works Bernard F. Marith, if the present slate isn't broken. The term is for earlier at $5,000 annual salary. The appointment to succeed Police Justice Itan any other flower. This morning an Evannic World reporter witnessed a pretty Heavy Minray, which it was confidently be-of Michael Coleman to his $5,000 position.

"Sold, mum," laconically replied the florist. "On dear !" came in a despairing voice.

Mr. Pheian is a contractor, a personal friend of the Mayor, and managed his last two campaigns for Mayor.

Ex-Judge Tappen is expected to be reappointed Park Compussioner and Dr. Charles &, Simmons Commissioner of Charities and Correction, a $5,000 office.

5 o'clock, "and this bounds with eagerness.

There were a number of ladies at the mart at that hour this morning, but the pleasantest sight was between 7 and 7.50 when shopmen and factory girls, on their way to their work.

STABBED IN THE SHOULDER.

Serious Result of a Butchers' Quarrel in an Abattoir.

Two young butchers had a fight in a west-week. West Fortieth street, about 7,30 o'clock this morning. norming, between Joseph Wade, of 433 West

Wade and Kuntamas got into an altercation evidence. over a trivial matter, and after bandging epi- In fact, so glaring were the direct denials of Examiner Leseur Reinstated with thets, Wade made a rush at Kunizmas and testimony between witnesses for the defense in a frightful manner.

Husser got on a Pennsylvania Rahiroad train from the place.

Kuntzmas was taken to Rossevelt Hospital, where he lies in a critical condition.

& Co. is glove importations, has been reinstated HE WAS VERY COOLLY ROBBED. Innocent Karl Smith Says He Fell created in their minds. Among Thieves.

> ex-convier, was this morning committed by atrongly lavorable to Miss G-range.
>
> Junice O'Donnell, of Jersey City, charged The case was given to the jury at 1 with a daring robbery.

Karl Smith, a young German baker from Montclair, says that between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning he went into Murray's saloon, at in $300 for trial at the Tombs Court to-day for Henderson and Twelfth streets. In paying for carrying a revolver because a fellow boarder had threatened to kill him.

FOR AN EIGHT HOUR DAY.

More Than 2,000 Building Trades
Men Strike in Pittaburg.

Firmsume, April 25 — More than 2,000 men
Supployed in the building trades as there was a rough-looking gang in the place of the contents, about 26, and fold him to get out, boutin said he did not disre offer any registance of the contents of the conten

A Grand Military and Civic Display Planned for Next Monday.

Ceremonies in Riverside Park.

8. Grant, in Riverside Park, next Monday. Jefferson Market Police Court. payriotism.

participating, as well as large numbers of Citizen George Francis Train was there to patriotic citizens, musical organizations and prising what they called a "Varsity theatre want to know about it. It's come to a

"Why," said the Citizen, "New York has giaff of the G. A. R. will report at noon Monat 2 o'clock P. M.

Brooklyn posts will report to Marshal Comoriginal chrysanthemum fiend," was at the rade George W. Brown, and outsof-town post market, enthusiastic over the new departure. John Kohler, Chief of Staff. New York posts will form to the east and south of the mound, during the months of April. May and June, for ing posts on the north-forming a square, with ent thing.

"In July and August we have the asters in a West One Hundred and Twenty-fith atreet command of an officer detailed by Major. -tien.

Then, beginning in September, we have the to anchor in the North River opposite the They began to sing in front of the theatre, but mound, and her guns will thunder a salute, in the arrival of the police caused a stampede blossoms till the anow files. Let us do it."

At this point the old florist capied Citizen mander-in-Chief Veazey cannot be there, but Sixth avenue. will be represented by members of his staff.

Mrs. Gen. Grant is expected to be an honored guest, besides many of the distinguished soldiers of the Civil War, including Gens. Sickles, Slocum, Howard, Schoffeld, Sigel Butterfield, Nugent, Schurz and Floyd Clarkthe house that has not a little window garden son, as well as many distinguished men in will be a rare thing in New York. The old civil and political life. Mayor Grant and the market could never have brought that about." " "ty government will be there and Governors of this and other States have been invited. The ceremonies will begin with an overture by the famous Marine Band. This will be followed by an invocation by Rev. Comrade Clark Wright, Chaplain of Hamilton Post, G. A. R., and 1,000 choristers, under the direction Grant's recent stay of two or three days in stand his wagon he had to drive to town early of S. G. Frait, will then sing "The Star Span-Saratoga, where the other gentlemen named in the evening before, and that made a cread-gled Banner." W. B. Lawton will render the > low with an introductory speech, and then come in at a decent hour after midnight, with. Gen. Horace Porter will deliver the oration of

At the completion of the oration, Department Commander Freeman will break the ground with a silver spade, specially made for this purpose, while the choristers sing

Then the sainte will be fired by the batters artillery, each gun being responded to from the Yantic, after which the choristers nd ardience will join in singing the Doxology. The ceremonies will conclude with a grand review of the Grand Army posts and the troops by the distinguished officers present, com mander Freeman being in command. While the exercises are to be conducted wholly under military auspices the programme has been arragged by advice and consent of f the Grant Monument Association which will meet its invited guests at the Claremon Hotel at 1 o'clock P. M. More than 2,000 invitations have been distributed by the Associa-

The last rebearsal for the entertainment be given at Madison Square Garden May 2, under the auspices of the Grant Monument "It's not yet half-past 6 o'clock. Well, I Association, will take place Monday evening. will have a moss rose if I have to come at The entertainment will comprise a war alle. Elevated Railroad Cor gory in song, more than 1,400 persons having volunteered from the various singing societies There were a number of ladies at the mart of the city. The Hawkins, Duryes and Wilson zouaves and Ninth Regiment veterans will perform the military evolutions.

of East Orange, on a charge of the larceny of $21.75 worth of goods from Stern Bros. De-

The allegation was made that these good sere packed in a box, and that Miss Gardner abstracted them just subsequent to the deliv avenue by Driver Kenna and Bundle Boy Burns, of Stern Brothers' force.

The trial has created an unwonted interest here, and the Quarter beesions Court has been the rendezvous of hundreds of the fair denizeus of the Oranges and of Newark.

side slaughter house this morning, and one | The same winsome imperturbability which stabled the other so flercely that another may has all along characterized the demeanor o be added to the long list of murders of the this hazel-eyed young woman of society was not lacking when Justice Kirkpatrick pegan The fight occurred in Stern's abattoir, 650 his charge to the jury at 10.20 o'clock this

Opinion has been very much divided as t Thirty-sixth street, and Charles Kuntzmas, of the guilt of Miss Gardner, and perhaps no this morning that Herbert Hussey, of 3m 443 West Thirty-nixth street, employed in the criminal case in this country has witnessed Mine street, met a horrible death last night on such pulpable contradictions in the way of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Hunterville, near

Before the charge was concluded Judge William Thomas, whom the police say is an Kirkpatrick developed a line of instruction

> The case was given to the jury at 11 o'clock. Carried a Gun Illegally.

Political Note. The Central Democratio Club has been formed in the Twenty-first Ward. The temporary officers are Chairman. Robert O'Byrne; Treasurer, David Hawkies; Recording Secretary, Jamie O'Connell; Financial Secretary, Jean F. Ronnelly and Forgential-Arms, Frank Phispatrick. The organization is independent.

STRIFE OVER THE BIG PLUMS. UNION SQUARE'S BEAUTY SPOT FOR GEN. GRANT'S MONUMENT COLLEGE BOYS OUT ON A LARK CITY DEAD LETTERS.

How Thousands of Missives Come to of Columbia's Sophomores. Be Held Up in the Post-Office.

THE WORLD: SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 25, 1891.

Young Fred Douglas Pays $3 for Kicking Over an Ash Barrel.

A young man, fashionably dressed, with his Arrangements have all been completed for a hands encased in tan-colored gloves, and nagnificent ceremonial at the breaking of swinging a derby hat of cinnamon hue, stood one thousand people showed their appreciation ground for the monument to General Ulysses before Judge McManon this morning in the

He was charged by Policeman Reardon, of chosen for the occasion, and there is every the Tenderioin Precinct, with naving deliber-Not all were buyers, to be sure, but there prospect that this initial movement to com- ately kicked over an ash barrel on Sixth

About four hundred Columbia students, com-

They wanted to see "Reilly and the 400," but even before the curtain rose they made the He spoke in acid tones, and it was Assistant house hideous with their cries. After the performance began the conduct of the students became more bolsterous. They presented several of the cast with cabbages and paper wads. Emma Pollock, who plays Maggle Murphy, came in for more than her share of this bitar

Some of the boys drank their own health ket florist to come to the New York mart only the Kings County poets on the west, and visit- that of the college and success to their "foarty" from a large black bottle. By the time the show was half over Mr. Har-> visit his house. The second haif of the play was hurried to a close, and the police were notified that the Columbia boys had taken the house by storm. After the curtain went down the boys left the house, making as much noise as possible every year.

The Commander of the New Jersey Departsection, twenty-five strong, of which young "We can make Union Square a flame of ment of the G. A. R., with his staff, and sev-

Sixth avenue.

Douglas did not see Policeman Reardon when he pushed the last barrel and the officer placed him under arrest. He was taken to the Thirtieth street station-house and locked

At midnight his student friends got enough money together to ball him out, and this At monigat his student friends got enough money together to hait him out, and this morning New. E. H. Krous, of 7 living piace, was in court in Douglas's behalf. On invitation of the Judge, the reverend gentleman took a seat beside him behind the har.

Douglas said he civi not intend to kick the barrel over, but was pushed against it by the crowd.

The Judge eved him closely, apper to the crowd.

The Judge eyed him closely, spoke to the clergyman at his side and said he would be lement that time. He fined Douglas 53 and released him to his friends, who were awaiting

old. SHARP NOTICE TO THE "L."

Must Take Advertising Posters Off the Battery Park Structure.

The first official hint that the Manhattan Elevated Railroad is occupying a strip of the Bal-tery Park on sufferance was received at the office of the Railroad Company this morning in the shape of the following letter, sent by Albert Gailup as President of the Department of

"GENTLEMEN: The Department of Public Parks of the city of New York having become aware of the fact that the New York Elevated Railroad Company, which enjoys a license to maintain and operate its road over the Batter; Park, pursuant to an agreement between the New York Elevated Railroad Company and the Department of Public Parks, dated Feb. 10, 1876, has violated the same in that it has not prevented the exhibition or distribution upon or from its road, or its constructions, withi the Battery, of signs, posters, handbills, and other forms of advertising, you are hereby notified that it is the duty of the Manhattan with the clause of the said agreement hereinabove referred to, and that unless the same is compiled with in all respects this Department will take such scuon in the premises at may This is only a hint, and it is believed that it people's pleasure ground.

When such action will be taken is nard to determine from anything which can be obtained from the Park Commissioners.

President Gallup says that there is time enough to act when the matter comes before the Board on the petition of any property owners, and then he only promises that the complaint will be heard.

The new Commissioner, ex-Judge Tappen, refuses to commit himself on the subject of the occupation of Battery Park by the L read. saying: "I am unlike the judge who com mitted himself more frequently than he did the criminals who were brought before him." The Commissioners refuse to say how they will not should the Railroad Company fail to beed their warning and refuse to remove the objectionable signs from the still more objectionable structure in the Park.

RUN DOWN BY A TRAIN.

Herbert Hussey of Paterson, Killed on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. PATERSON, N. J., April 25. -It was learned Bahway.

He was struck by a freight train and mangles Expressed bints of sometody being limits to a summons for perfury.

In the Justice's charge, however, no ray of light was offered to show on which side the taken the wrong train flusser said to be let Jostice Kirkpatrick's charge was substitute. The conflicting statements in the case had apparently beforged the minds of the jurors, and by the dubous snakings of their heads the impression gained that a doubt has been thirty-five years old.

BROWN AN EASY VICTIM.

Robbed of Gold Watches. The Jersey City police are looking for a bold in their hurry the formality of inscribing on jewelry store at 488 Grove street, and asked to whom it was intended.

This is the second robbery of the 18nd com-mitted in Brown's store during the past year. The Eventine World reporter was shown Belgium was addressed to 2,018 Heinster during the past month,

Addresses Left Off by Absent- dress on the parcel, had inscribed a state-Minded People.

Unmailable Packages Collected in Mr. Van Cott's Storerooms.

"We mailed a blue print drawing of The prisoner was Frederick W. Dougias, of 10,901 Walnut street, Philadelphia, three plans for a residence to Smith & Smith, The parcolain.

The parcolain. said you would look the matter up. Now I Department Commander Freeman and bis in Harrigan's Theatre.

party," occupied considerable space last night pretty pass if it takes a week for mail to cross the State of New Jersey." cross the State of New Jersey !"

It was a young man of austere manner Superintendent I. H. Toll, of the "Lost or Missing" Department of the General Post-Office, who replied in the blandest, most unconcerned way imaginable.

"You say you mailed this letter three days ago, and"-"It wasn't a letter," snapped the austere said Miss Rosenthal. young man. "It was a plan, placed in a regularly approved mailing tube, prepaid wrappers, but the wrappers are flimsy and rigan had wowed several times that this was delivery stamp on it."

paid at letter rate ?"

at letter rates; and besides, I put a special are completely destroyed before they reach this side. I have samples of give, minerals "Quite sure about its having been pre- wool, tea, tinsel skirt cloth, tin cans and a dozen other things. We get from 5,000 to "We-ell, I didn't do it myself, but I 6,000 pieces of unaddressed matter of this up half the receipts of this department,'

THE TURTLE TUR.

"They are mailed all right in addressed enough to satisfy us that their owners will "Packages of samples from Europe make ment of its contents on the wrapper.

fixedly.

isn't that darned letter now !"

British Post-Office Department.

from the last ocean mail.

"That's a fair sample, only people who trouble, and went away.

AT THE DRAD LETTER WINDOW. understand that letter postage was put on class every year. Most of them come as the tube and a special delivery stamp," holiday time, and are claimed by the sendreplied the young man with a little less ers within a fortnight. We keep them long

"Miss Rosenthal, have you a blue print never appear, after which we forward them in a tube 911 to Washington." Mr. Toll addressed a dark-haired young woman who was busy at a desk marking his eye, inquired at the window for infor-

curious-looking packages. mation regarding a letter that he had Miss Sarah Rosenthal, who has charge of mailed March 31, and which had never the "unaddressed matter" in the local reached its destination. 'Dead-Letter Office," arose, opened a big cupboard and in a moment approached the | county or something in addressing it," said window with a long roll in her hands. he, adding, "I am so absent-minded."

"That's it !!! Now, why has that tube been detained describe the letter minutely, examined his here? It should have been in the hands of records and then said: "I've no record of

Smith & Smith these two days and a half." it. Now isn't it probable that that letter is Mr. Toll smilingly held up the roll, and still under the book where you put it to press turned it slowly before the eyes of the after you had gummed the envelope? will be followed up with action on the part of austere young man. There was the letter "No, I shouldn't think so," replied the the Park Board to revoke the permit of 1876 postage, a ten-cent stamp, and there was caller abstractedly. "I always slip a rubaustere young man. There was the letter "No, I shouldn't think so," replied the and compet the Company to remove its us- the blue ten-cent stamp which would have ber band on my little finger as a reminder sightly and encumbering structure from the insured the prompt delivery by a special at such times, and, besides, I seal my letmessenger from the Philadelphia Post-Office | ters like this." to Smith & Smith, 10,901 Walnut street,

HIS LETTER IN HIS POCKET. aly-there was never a scratch of a on the carefully sealed wrapper.

Mr. Toll smiled, and that was all he said. The austere young man grew flaming red up to the roots of his blond hair. Then he said petulantly:

"Well, I think you might be a little more civil about such matters. You are not high addressed to Smith at '140 Boston street.'

Now there are a dozen towns with a Boston street, and all we can do is to return the letter to the land of the sick man of the East."

Then he hurried away with the package that didn't get to its intended destination in their hurry the formality parties forgot.

"Here is a letter mailed in Turkey and till we received a reply, or at least till the owner had time to reply; so we had a cage made to keep them in. But 'gators are no longer a novelty, and people don't mail the signature of himse. We've had all sorts of things. We've had all sorts of things. We've had all sorts of things. We've had canary birds consigned to the mail " Here is a letter mailed in Turkey and till we received a reply, or at least till the For the Second Time Within a Year that didn't get to its intended destination of the East."

* County House, Oneida County," which boxes by thoughtless people. Scorpion. robber who last evening entered Emil Brown's it the name and address of the parties for might mean the Court-House at Utica or from Yucatan, and tarantulas from Texas the almshouse or the penitentiary. Another Brown said before the prospective purchaser and Mr. Toll. "That is a sample of our customers," address was "America, Long Island," in a said Mr. Toll. "That fellow wanted to eat | fair, scholarly hand; another one who "That is a sample of our customers," two watches, one with solid gold cases and the us up because Smith & Smith hadn't reother filled gold. After a pretended examination the man saked to see another watch watch he neutring duty.

The two firms have apparently lives at the "Gold Dust Saloon, apent several dollars telegraphing about Seventeen street and First avenue, Illinois." which he pointed out.

As Brown turned around to get it, the fellow snatched up the two wateness on the counter and resaling ont of the door escaped with his plunder.

Seventeen street and First avenue, Illinois, 'When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

Seventeen street and First avenue, Illinois, 'When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

Miss Resenthal's collection of unaddressed street, New York, and a French missive, were not uncommon at one time, and mail mafter that had fallen into her hands addressed in a hand as fair and clear as copper plate engraving, must go back to There were umbrellas, a Japanese sun- Paris, because the sender was no more tooth powder, a crocheted shawl, a box of A Cambridge, Americane." corsets, a bow and arrow, pictures of all But this sort of error is not monopolised kinds, a package of quill toothpicks, the other side of the Great Pond. A letter artists' materials, a small hair pillow and mailed in Jersey City bore this address: numerous other things. In most cases the "Treasury Department, United States York, Official Business," and a dainty feminine hand addressed a perfumed note to her male friend at "9 Court square city," while down in one corner of the envelope is written "Farmer." One letter, received from an Oregon postoffice, was addressed to "X. Y., Statesma Office.

"Everything that the postal men can't make out they send to New York," said Mr. Toll, "but, of course, the mails from foreign lands to immigrants in this piece literally covered with directions, but without the name or address of the person whom the writer desires to reach.

AN ALLIGATOR IN THE MAIL. "The ignorant foreigner here, for in tance, finds a home in a lodging-house over a saloon, and he sends his new address to his folks across the water. Then we get letter addressed like this one : "

"There you see, every sign on the build ing or in the windows has been carefully copied, but there is no suggestion of town, county, State or street, the sender having just intelligence enough to know that the letter is to go to America.

"All foreign letters inadequately directed "All foreign letters inadequately directed are returned immediately to their mailing gressive Laborers' Union No. 1. Martin Regel, one of the members, has indeed ided. place; but domestic letters are traced up and the addresses found if possible, and we Labor Lyceum, 25 East Fourth street.

Yorker wants to court the widow he'd better fix things all right with the boys first." From 100 to 125 pieces of mail are dropped York Post-Office unstamped. These letters parties are notified by card. On receipt of the amount of postage due, the mail is for-

A slender man, with a far-away look in But the chief business of the local "dead letter office" is in "Nixey" mail matter. That is the name given to unmailable mat

A LETTER FROM LUNNON'.

"That's a fair sample, only people who forget to mail letters and come here to find out why we haven't delivered them are not usually so good-natured as this man. They generally use language that would not be admitted to the columns of The Evenino World, and when they discover that the fault is their own, they don't apologize for the abuse they have heaped upon us. No, they seem, rather, to resent the fact that we are not blameworthy.

The next caller wore a monocle, long, stringy, red side-whiskers and clothing unmistakably from Poole's. He was looking for a letter from "Lunnon." It was overful to the Land of Flowers and factors and proposed the contract of the Central Labor Federation, The Union was and clothing unmistakably from Poole's. He was looking for a letter from "Lunnon." It was overful to the Land of Flowers and factors and proposed to the Central Labor Federation, The Union will parade in a bedy on May 1.

Trade is fair for the grains-centery for the General Secretary of the Quarryment's Record to the Central Labor four weeks. There are long to the demand to the General Secretary of the Quarryment's Record to the Central through the stock that we used to get so much live stock that we thought of starting a museum," and Supply. Confectioners' Union No. That seems this weak in me one out of employment, as the demand for the New York Dead Letter office.

"At one time we had to have a tub in which to keep small turtles, lizards, anakes and alligators. There would come up from Florida a nice long package, with suspicious perforations in its side or top, and week of the vice of the contral Labor Federation, The Union will young alligator had passed the scrutiny of Walking Delegate as long as the Union Section 1.

dressed party that we had his precious "That is one of our queer departments," present from Florida, and would be please said Mr. Toil, taking up a bundle of letters send for it by express. "Of course we had to keep the gators

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

turtles used to come in by the doze

The postal law provides that liquids mus be packed in boxes with enough absorben shade, a box of handkerchiefs, a box of definite in his directions than "Lok Bx N 4, of some sort to take up all the liquid should the package break. This rule is frequently violated, and in consequence broken bottles of gresse, shoe-blacking and the like smear everything else in the mailbag, frequently obliterating the addresses sender, though forgetting to place the ad- Inter. Revenue Service, Fifth District, New on all the pieces of mail with which is comes in contact. This stuff is held, and the addressed parties notified, if the address is decipherable, The addressed parties must forward enough money to pay for expressing the goods to Then there are the "hotel" letters, which aggregate 60,000 a year in this town. These are letters addressed to people supposed to be stopping at a certain hotel. If the addressed party is not there, the letter is returned to the Post-office, and Messrs. Jones country are the most puzzling. The and Toll get it. They are advertised in the addresses are most always spelled newspapers, and bulletined with other unphonetically, and frequently we get delivered mail matter on the walls of the big Post-Office. It costs a cent each to advertise letters, except that the Italian newspapers advertise letters from Italy free. Should there be a call for an advertised letter, the caller must pay the one cent cost of advertising. If unclaimed after the lapse of a proper time the matter is forwarded to Washing ton and becomes dead letters. Friday is dead-letter day, and last Friday 23,106 pieces were shipped to Washington, on which $115.66 was due for postage and adrertising.

Unclaimed unsealed circulars are destroyed after thirty days. Another class of mail matter is detained secause of a suspicion that the package contains goods on which Customs duties should be paid. The addressed party is notified, visits the local office, iden the parcel and then goes with a clerk from the Post-Office to the Custom House, where the parcel is opened and examin by an Inspector of Customs, and if no duty is demanded the owner takes his parcel away. An innocent little bundle of red flan from Italy was one day found to be stuffed with diamonds, and dutiable articles are frequently discovered in small parcels for in the foreign mails.

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR Cloakmakers' mass-meeting this evening as 1205 ary Hall, 193 Bowery. A max-meeting of bakers will be held this even-ing at No. 1872 Second avenue.

The expmakers working at Simonson's shop have contributed $250 to assist their locked-out com-

The trial of Clonkmaker Sunlowitz, for alleged as About 100 beas bakers in Sydney, Australia, are employing none but Union men, under the eight-nour system.

sometimes run across funny epistles in this work.

"We traced a letter addressed by a New York man to a widow up the Hudson, and got this report from the rural postmaster:

"Letter was taken from this office by the widow's sons. The next time that New York to have the solution of the Section of the Sectio

The new officers of Branch 55 of the Paving Cutters Union has elected the following officers: Benjamin Coloman, President: Thomas Hassey, Vine-President; Robert Jones, Shop Sieward. daily into the receiving boxes of the New York Post-Office unstamped. These letters warded to its destination. Otherwise, the unprepaid matter is shipped to the Dead Letter Office at Washington.

The pavers of Roston have established the nine-bour cay with ten hours' pay, and the Springfield, Mass., free-stone cutters won their eight mouther contest for higher wages.

"The future of Christendom must issue in the abolition of rents, but wheeter with confusion and sisupiter, or by the action of noble and resolute men in the rising generation, remains to be de-oided."—John Ruskin.

The Loston Projective Tinton at the next amount

The Lasters' Protective Union at its next annual convention will probably adopt a union label, which a to be pasted in all above.

from 100 Bass One Hundres and Pain Branch Brooklyn, of the riomse Pain carolled five new members this week, not attending the parade on May I will Charles Frost and Philip Koenig ware! bers of the agliation committee, Waiters' Union No. 1 has ordered its Waiting Delegate and its Secretary to visit the restaurants in the lower part of the city on Mondays and Saturdays to organize the men working these. On May 1, the Union will turn it its claster received from the newly organized National Union.

due, and he had been told that mayhap it was not properly directed. The letter was not properly directed. The letter was not in the dead-letter collection, and the Englishman was informed that if it had arrived it had probably been returned to the British Post Office Property of the pr

HOW TO GET WELL

MENT. For pains in the limbs, back or chest, sere throat, colds or bodily pains of any kind it cannot be equalled. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by all Brag-giets. Depot, 40 Murray St., H. T.

Use the great Pain Rellever, DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINE